Re: Introduction/Reaching Out
Tapia v. Daoghiao, et al., S.D.N.Y. no. 1:25-cv-01456-LTS

Dear Mr. Tapia,

I am writing in response to our recent telephone conversation last week, in which you described your above-referenced litigation, including some of the underlying events that gave rise to your claims which you had briefly mentioned on our call and requesting legal assistance. Based on my understanding, you would like legal assistance/representation in the above-referenced case, which is pending in the Southern District of New York.

As discussed, I've enclosed a pre-addressed, prepaid envelope for you to be able to write me any correspondence and send any materials that you would like me to review or take under consideration. To be clear, I have not agreed to represent you or take your case, but I am happy to look over your papers and potentially offer some feedback or guidance. Nothing in this letter or our communications should be taken to mean that we are in an attorney-client relationship.

As you probably know, I am an attorney with The Atlantic Foundation, which is a private, nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization that provides limited legal services to underserved communities. Our office usually provides limited-scope representation through the Southern District's Pro Bono program and panel, which requires pro se litigants (like yourself) to submit an application to the court/judge for determination. I enclosed a blank pro bono counsel application for you as well as a prepaid envelope for you to mail/file your paperwork. If approved, my office is more than open to taking a closer look at your case and, if applicable, assisting you.
